

The Steamboat Institute, in partnership with The Sumners Foundation, is proud to present a compelling debate on the following resolution:

Be it resolved, the risks of academic engagement with China outweigh the benefits, and the US government and universities must take action to address this risk.

TUESDAY
OCT 3

6:30 - 8:00 PM CT

THE DEBATE CHAMBER AT OLD PARKLAND
DALLAS, TX

3819 Maple Ave, Dallas TX 75219

- Free for students and faculty with valid id (registration is required to guarantee seating)
- $35 per person for all others
- $250 Per person includes cocktail reception with speakers prior to the debate

REGISTER TODAY

FEATURING

Arguing the affirmative
MILES YU, PH.D.

Professor of East Asia and Military and Naval History, U.S. Naval Academy; Senior Fellow and Director of the China Center, Hudson Institute

Arguing the negative
YASHENG HUANG, PH.D.

Epoch Foundation Professor of International Management; Professor of Global Economics and Management, Massachusetts Institute of Technology

Moderated by
GEORGE BOGDEN, J.D.

Olin Fellow, Columbia Law School; Senior Visiting Researcher, Bard College; Tony Blankley Fellow, Steamboat Institute

Opening remarks by
MICHAEL R. POMPEO
70th U.S. Secretary of State

Steamboat Institute gratefully acknowledges the support of these foundations in presenting the Campus Liberty Tour

